(U) Oakland – Man Detonates Pipe Bomb, Kills Self in Health Clinic

(U) A man in a wheelchair detonated a pipe bomb inside an east Oakland health clinic yesterday, according to authorities, who believe his intent was to commit suicide. The man, whose name has not been released, entered the clinic lobby and detonated the bomb, killing himself. No one else was injured. Investigators concluded the incident was isolated and labeled it a suicide. The Alameda County Sheriff's Department sent its bomb squad to assist with the investigation and make sure no other explosive devices were inside the clinic.

(U) San Francisco – Four Students Shot in High School Parking Lot

(U) Police and school officials said four people were wounded, one critically, in a shooting that occurred at a San Francisco high school parking lot after school had been let out for the day. One victim, a girl, was shot in the upper extremities and suffered life-threatening injuries. Two male victims were shot in the lower extremities and suffered non-critical wounds. A fourth victim walked into San Francisco General Hospital, saying he was injured in the gunfire. The school was placed on lockdown, which has since been lifted. School officials said one of the victims was specifically targeted and that the three others were bystanders. Police said four male suspects were seen fleeing the scene shortly after the shooting.
